INSTRUCTIONS FOR OBTAINING A NEW CLASS I, II or III LICENSE

Contact the Building Inspector's office, Room 203, 508- 532-5500, to file a "Zoning Determination Form" to determine if proposed location is properly zoned (or special permit is required from the Zoning Board of Appeals or site plan review from the Planning Board).

If a Special Permit is required submit the application for a Special Permit to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

If the Special Permit application is granted by the ZBA, submit a copy of the Special Permit along with the 20 day appeal letter from the City Clerk's office.

The following must be submitted along with the licensing application: Site plan, parking plan, lease, bill of sale, articles of organization or business certificate, dealership agreement, service agreement. Applicant must attend Board of License Commissioners' hearing where application is considered.

All Class II licenses are required to carry a $25,000 Bond.

Workers' Compensation Affidavit and Proof of Workers' Comp Insurance (Framingham License Coordinator must be named as Certificate Holder) required for all Classes.

New licensed location requires a legal notice in the local newspaper. The fee for placing the ad is $125.00 and is due with the application.
