Ernest Hemingway: His Life and Legacy

ERNEST HEMINGWAY: HIS LIFE AND LEGACY

Thursday, March 28, 2-3 p.m.

Presented by: Dr. Larry Lowenthal

Fifty-eight years after his death, Ernest Hemingway's books are still in print and read by millions of people around the world. What are the elements that constitute his literary greatness, and why does he continue to fascinate new generations of readers? On the other hand, what are the elements, both literary and social, that now seem dated and even embarrassing?

Dr. Larry Lowenthal will discuss the extraordinary life and works of Ernest Hemingway. Larry Lowenthal received an M.A. in English Literature from Northwestern and Ph.D. in Drama from NYU. He taught at several colleges in the U.S. and Israel. More recently, he taught in the English and Jewish Studies Departments at Northeastern as an adjunct professor.
