Framingham Seeking Applicants for the Fair Housing Committee

FRAMINGHAM - The City of Framingham is seeking multiple applicants for the 13-member Fair Housing Committee.

The Fair Housing Committee works to promote access to safe and affordable housing for all segments of the community to the maximum extent feasible.

The Fair Housing Committee accomplishes this through the study of housing issues, public education, and advocacy. The Committee reports to the Mayor.

The Committee is comprised of 13 members. Nine members are nominated by the Mayor, and must be confirmed by the City Council. These individuals must live in Framingham should represent segments of the community. The terms are for 3 years.

Four members are ex-officio appointments for 1-year terms and represent the Human Relations Commission, the Community and Economic Development Department, the Planning Board, and the Framingham Housing Authority

At this time, the Committee meets the last Wednesday of the month.
